

Patrick Saboe -Director of Wine Making

A love for wine began for Patrick in the restaurant industry at nationally renowned restaurant in his hometown of Charleston, SC. Experiencing wines from around the world sparked an interest and a desire to learn more, eventually leading Patrick to the University of California Davis' Viticulture and Enology program. A highlight at UCD was working in the vineyards with Dr. Andy Walker.

After graduation Patrick entered the wine industry as a Harvest Enologist, then became Assistant Winemaker at Keller Estate, working closely with renowned winemaker Michael McNeil and producing award-winning wines. In 2012 Patrick joined The Wine Foundry team as Director of Winemaking. Today he continues to produce extraordinary wines and remains committed to his winemaking philosophy: exceptional wines are made from exceptional fruit with exceptional care.

When he is not making awesome wine, Patrick spends time with his wife Dawn and his three children in Petaluma.
